Summary

Clive Cussler's Dark Vector is the 19th installment in the bestselling Numa Files series, featuring the iconic duo of Dirk Pitt and Al Giordino. In this thrilling adventure, Pitt and Giordino find themselves on the trail of a shadowy organization known as The Vector, a group with deep roots in ancient history and a sinister agenda for the future.

The story begins with the discovery of a mysterious artifact in the depths of the Atlantic Ocean. The artifact, known as the Codex Vector, contains ancient secrets that could have devastating consequences if they fall into the wrong hands. Pitt and Giordino are tasked with retrieving the Codex and preventing it from being used for evil.

As they investigate the Codex, Pitt and Giordino uncover a web of conspiracy and deception that reaches the highest levels of power. They must race against time to stop The Vector from carrying out their plans, while also facing deadly threats from their enemies at every turn.
